Seminar dwells on Partition

Tribune News Service
Amritsar, February 26

The Department of History, Travel and Tourism of DAV College organised a one-day international seminar on 'Partition 1947: Voices of the People' in collaboration with Partition Archive 1947, University of California, Berkeley.

Dr Guneeta Bhalla, who is the founder and director of the 1947 Partition Archive at the University of California, was the chief guest at the seminar.

She said Partition Archives was an oral history programme with a purpose to conduct interviews of the people who witnessed the Partition. Dr SS Sohal from Guru Nanak Dev University was the keynote speaker of the seminar.
